Dear Sir:

Could you kindly let me know if I can subscribe for the American Journal of Numismatics without becoming a member of the A. N. S., and the rate per year for the same.

By so doing you will greatly oblige,

Yours respectfully

Dear Sir:

In reply to your enquiry of June 12th would advise that the American Journal of Numismatics has been temporarily discontinued, but if you so desire we should be glad to supply you with back volumes. Volumes 1 - XLVIII at Two Dollars each volume; Volumes XLIX - LII at $5.00, and Volume L - Part 1 and Part 2, at $6.00, or $3.00 each Part. Part 3 has not yet been issued.

In the place of this Journal beginning last January, our Society is issuing a new series of monographs entitled 'Numismatic Notes and Monographs', a sample of which I am sending you under separate cover. These are sent free to members and are sold to non-members at a rate varying from 50¢ to $2.00. Should you care to place an order for these, we should be glad to supply you.

Enclosed is a list of publications of the American Numismatic Society which may interest you.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
